

Our Study

In this study we hope to show that early, regular feeding with egg will reduce egg allergy.

Participation will include a dietary supplement from 4-8 months, 3 allergy clinic visits at PMH and 4 follow-up phone calls.

The University of Western Australia
School of Paediatrics and Child Health

Professor Susan Prescott

School of Paediatrics and Child Health
Princess Margaret Hospital for Children
GPO Box D184
Perth WA, Australia 6001

THE EGG ALLERGY PREVENTION STUDY

Does your baby have eczema?

They could be at risk of food allergies