

Product News

DVD Severe Allergy Management

NOW AVAILABLE!

First of its kind in Australia

Severe Allergy Management –
Living with the risk of anaphylaxis

Everyone should make use of this outstanding educational tool and special DVD offer.

Support provided by Tour de Kids Ride 2008 has meant that Anaphylaxis Australia Inc is able to provide a limited number of DVDs at the reduced cost of only $20 . (includes postage and handling)

Recommended retail price

Members $25.00 Non members $30.00

This new DVD is divided into 3 easy to follow parts and has an additional CD reference library of almost 20 Help Sheets & Discussion Papers.

- Part 1. Dr Preeti Joshi, a paediatric allergist and immunologist, explains allergy and anaphylaxis and its management. Recognise the symptoms of a severe allergic reaction. Find out how to administer the EpiPen®

- Part 2. Find out about common scenarios that occur when caring for someone at risk of anaphylaxis.

- Part 3. Includes specific information for school and childcare staff.

To obtain your copy of this unique DVD download the special offer order form from our website www.allergyfacts.org.au Payment option details are on the form.

This special offer is available to all until 30 November 2008 or until stocks last.

The special order form on our website must be used to obtain this limited special offer.

1300 728 000

02 9482 5988

www.allergyfacts.org.au

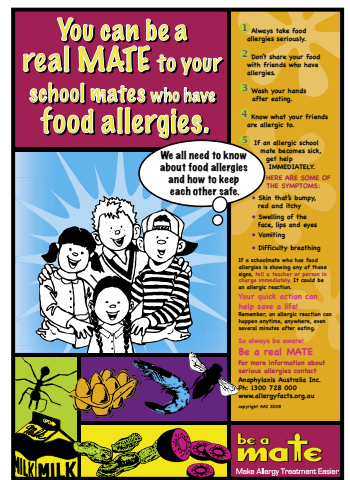

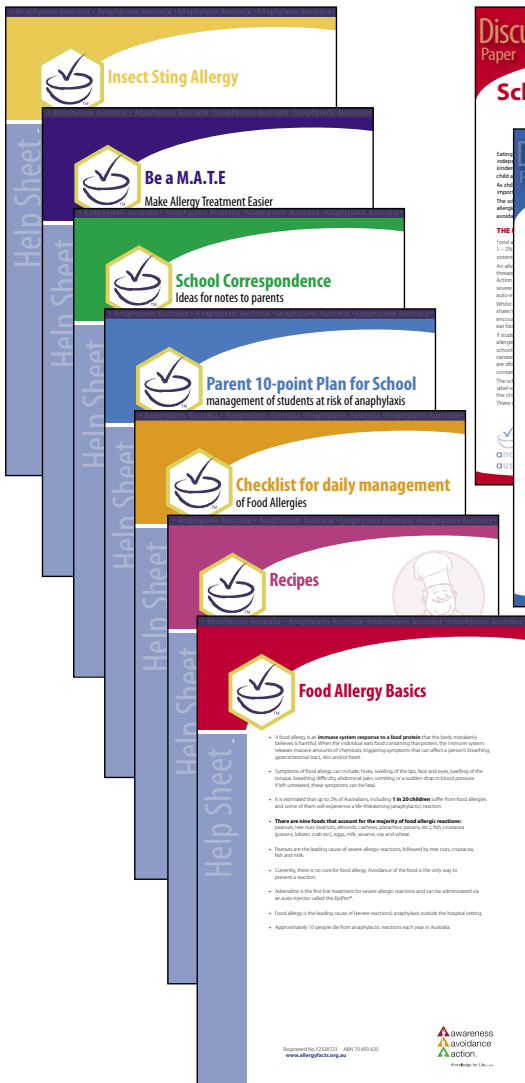

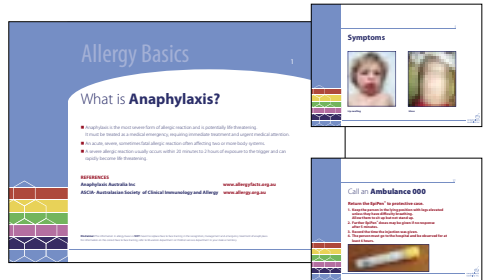

coordinator@allergyfacts.org.au

DVD Severe Allergy Management

YOUR OWN RESOURCE LIBRARY -

All these documents are available on this DVD for you to print out when needed.

NSW Food Authority

This brochure will give you information on managing food allergies and intolerances including buying food, eating out and information on where you can get more help.

Translated Brochures available in: Arabic, Chinese, Greek, Italian, Korean, Spanish, Thai and Vietnamese.